MIGHT ARREST RUSSELL SAGE. Renttle Board Investigating Alleged Stand-

The Health Board gave a hearing yesterday afternoon on the complaint of a number of residents of the neighborhood of 115th street residents of the neighborhood of 115th street and East River against the plant of the Standard Gas Company, which is at the foot of that street. Complaint was made to the Board at its first meeting in July that the gas company emptied its drip oil into the East River, and as this was in violation of the law the Board gave the company until July 15 to do away with it. A dozen residents called on the Board yesterday and said that the nuisance had not been abated. They also declared that there were other nuisances which the company's plant was responsible for. The noise of the constant coal shoveling kept the neighbors awake, and at intervals in the night the surplus gas was allowed to escape from the retoris. There was an unhealthy sineli from the rludge and other refuse which the company allowed to gather. J. T. Rosenhe mer aced as spoke man for the delegation of residents, who were: Robert T. Smith, George Lick, Joseph Effinger, Louis Wernstein, George Holden, Superintendent Wodds appeared for the gas company and said the complaint of the citizens was without foundation. The plant was no more of a nuisance than any other gas plant in the city. The company had stopped allowing its drip oil to escape into the East River, and as for the noise occasioned by the coal shovelling, that and East River against the plant of the Standshavelling kept the neighbors awake, and at inshavelling kept the neighbors awake, and at intervals in the night the surplus gas was allowed to escape from the retorts. There was an unhealthy smell from the zludge and other refuse which the company allowed to gather. J. T.
Rosenie mer aced as spokesman for the delegation of residents, who were, Itabert T. Smith,
George Lick, Joseph Effinger, Louis Wernstein, Bernard Meyer, Henry Neus, E. Lowinson, E.
Ritz, J. Wetter, L. Danzig, and George Holden, Superintendent Mockage and Assistant Superintendent Wodds appeared for the gas comjuny and said the complaint of the citizens was without foundation. The plant was no more of a nuisance than any other was plant in the city.
The company had stopped allowing its drip oil to escape into the East River, and as for the noise occasioned by the coal shovelling, that was unavoidable.

Fresident Wilson said that if the Board found that the drip oil was polluting the East River it would cause the arrest of the President of the company, Russell Sare, and the superintendent.
Mr. Wilson said the Board had had enough trouble with gas companies about this naisance, and at one time had been compelled to cause
the argest of President James Smith of the Consolidated Company.

A peculiar feature was that the Health Board's the ariest of President James Smith of the Con-solidated Company.

A pseculiar feature was that the Health Board's inspectors had reported that there was no cause for complaint about the Standard Company's plant. Finally the Board adopted a resolution offered by Health Commissioner Doty providing that an inspector be detailed to live in the neighborhood for one week to see if there was any nuisance. The Board deferred action until he makes his report. Several of the complain-ants offered rooms in their houses for the use of the inspector, but the offers were declined. The inspector will take up his abode in the vicinity to-day.

RAINES LAW CLURS IN BROOKLYS.

District Attorney Backus Says They Masn't Use Rooms Brionging to Saloons. Social clubs have been cropping up all over Brooklyn since the Raines law went into force, and District Attorner Foster L. Backus now proposes to give them some of his attention. He made this announcement yesterday: made this announcement resterday:

"I have instructed the police that in every case where a social club holds its sessions on founday in the back room of a saloon, or in any room adjoining a saloon, that arreats should be made. These spartments are a part of the saloons and as such cannot be used for any other purpose. The first case that comes before me in this relation will be tested to settle the question of the status of the many social clubs that have been incorporated of late."

Mr. Laurier Will Visit England, MONTREAL, Quebec, Aug. 4.- Mr. Israel Tarte, Minister of Public Works, who was returned by acclamation for St. John's and Iberville, yesterday announced in a public address that Mr. Laurier would visit England this fall. It would then be seen that, after Gladstone, Canada's new Premier was the world's greatest parliamentary orator.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—The opportunities of the American manufacturer in the German market are set forth in a report just received at the State Department from United States Con-

The Consul says the Germans unquestionably admit the superiority of American manufactures and workmanship, and they pattern after them whenever possible. They have American dentists, stoves made after the American plan which they call American stoves, American fashion plates in their tailor shops, and many of The word "American" attached to anything is intended to convey the idea of superiority, and yet exceedingly few American goods are sold there, simply for the reason that no effective effort is made to introduce them.

After speaking of the enormous difference in the price of furniture in the two countries and as indicating a splendid and profitable market still reaps his grain with the old-time sickle uses the heavy, unhandy grubbing hoe to hill his potatoes, and turns up the soil with an im-nlement so heavy and clumsy that it requires wheels to get it over the ground. Light, well-made, cheap American implements, he thinks, would easily replace these.

The manner of driving piles in Germany would make an American contractor smile. A simple block and fail arrangement is rigged up over the pile, and to the end of the rope running over the pile, and to the end of the rope running over the pile, and fastened to the weight are attached about twenty-five smaller ropes with handles which are grabbed by twenty-five men, who, at a signal, all pull together. The weight goes up about two feet, when the men relax their muscles and the weight drops. In the erection of buildings the same tedious process is employed, and for every stone to be raised a pair of horses and about lifteen men tug at the ropes. The German boots and shoes are much inferior to the American, the Consul says, as they lack style and quality and are higher in price.

"The great difficulty with American manufacturers and dealers," the report concludes." is that they waste their time shouting for a home market, when there is no home market with the price of t home market, when there is no home market and can never be so long as the supply so great-ly exceeds the demand. The markets they want are here and elsewhere in the world, and are not so hard to find if they would only take the time to hunt them up."

A number of cap-italists and banking institutions of the municipality that is appropriately known as the "Windy City" took an interest in the speculation, either directly or by lending money to the promoters. Now that those promoters have exhausted their own resources and also their credit with local money lenders, their efforts to establish fictitious values for the securities they were handling have come to an end. The custodians of other people's money at Chicago, after encouraging an artificial movement in Diamond Match and New York Biscui stocks as far as they dared, have suddenly become alarmed and published to the world the character of the business in which they have been engaged. They and their allies in undertaking appear to have had sufficient influence to close the doors of the shop where the blackboard upon which fictitious values have been chalked for some months past was ept. Advices from the head of Lake Michigan that this action was taken to avert a panic. and it is spoken of locally as a wise and commendable procedure. It might be so characterized had it taken place before the marking-up process had progressed to a point that had aroused more than local concern. As it is, the closing of the Chicago Stock Exchange at this time is vividly suggestive of a discontinuance of the same because it has ceased to run in favor Fortunately the collapse of the Diamond Match and New York Biscuit manipulation at Chicago is almost entirely a local affair, and as the enterprises upon which the securities are based are, according to all accounts, solvens and profitable, it is probable that the losses will be limited to the purely speculative element. stitutions in Chicago have supported this confidence in their management; still, their provincial correspondents may regard the episode as resulting entirely from pardonable hoped that they will take that view. Careful inquiries fail to reveal any important interest outside of Chicago in the stocks of the two comthis city and Boston traded in those stocks up to counts, closed their deals in them. This probably is what made it difficult for the original pronoters to carry their load any longer. The banks upon these Chicago speculative favorites, and they are therefore interested only indirectly or sentimentally in the specutation that their view of the present unsettled condition of affairs, it is to be regretted that the Chicago banks have not accepted their legacy with less ostentation. That, however, was hardly to be expected, considering the intensity of local Operators on the short side of the market were quick to take advantage of the sentimental effect of the Chicago collapse, and in the first few minutes of business on the Stock Exchange they were able to depress the prices of several of the active stocks two or three points. The most effective selling was of C. B. and Quincy, Sugar Refining, and St. Paul. After the opening raid had spent its force the market became dull and showed very little animation during the remainder of the day. Neither did it show much rallying power. This was largely because of the persistent weakness in C., B. and Quincy, which was accompanied by reports that the next quarterly dividend upon that stock, which is now nearly due, will be reduced. Such an event according to its own showing, been paying unearned dividends for some time past. C., B. and Quincy sustained a net decline of 214 points, while through the remainder of the list the net losses ranged from fractions to 114 . cent. for St. Paul, Chicago Gas, and American Tobacco.
